We have chosen to home school our children from China. When adopting older children they really don't fit into one grade, they are combination of many grades (including 2nd in math but Pre-k in reading/phonics). We also feel like we missed out on so many years with our wonderful children, we don't want to miss out on any more!

There's no place like home!

"No Place Like Home" is a perfect book--a vibrant page turner that's important and moving. A compassionate listener and observer, author Janovy criss-crosses the heart of America to tell the stories of everyday people left out of the overarching narrative lie about what America is and who we are.
