Captain Leland is the character Star Trek: Discovery fans love to hate. As the duplicitous face of Section 31, he recruited Georgiou and then Tyler, while his allegiances continued to shift over season two. The character took an even darker turn, first in "The Red Angel," when the AI jabbed him in the eye, and then in "Perpetual Infinity," as the AI completely subsumed Leland.

Interview: Matthew Carl Earl Talks Star Trek: Dark Remnant

In the very first Star Trek episode ever, the original pilot titled "The Cage," Captain Christopher Pike (Jeffrey Hunter) fell in love with a human castaway named Vina (Susan Oliver). Thanks to the illusory powers of the big-brained Talosians, Vina took many forms, and one of them was, famously, a green-skinned dancer.
